Teachers, Parents, Students are a TEAM!

IN THE CLASSROOM

The teachers will work with students and their families to support students' success in all classes. Some of our key connections with families will be to

- Encourage visits to the school or teacher websites for important study guides and resources to build vocabulary skills. (Hard copies are available for parents who do not have internet access)
- Communicate with parents on a regular basis through email, phone calls, school correspondence, One-Call, Infinite Campus, and other computer-based programs regarding progress in literacy and math.
- Encourage students and their families to support students' success in ELA, Math, Social Studies, and Science
- Encourage the use of technology in daily instruction
- Encourage input and participation in the Individualized Education Plan (IEP) when applicable.

Teachers, Parents, Students are a TEAM!

TMHS Students

Will work with both teachers and parents in order to be successful in each subject. Here are a few ideas on how students will make connections between learning at home and school:

- Always do my best in my work and in my behavior by respecting self, teachers, and others
- Obey the school, bus, and car rider rules and take pride in my school and school work by coming prepared each day.
- Believe that I can and will learn.
- Review the day's work and assignments daily for at least 15 minutes
- Set aside time each day to read at home
- Take home all school correspondences and share my academic progress with my parents regularly.

TMHS PTO

At Home

TMHS believes that families are an important key in learning. TMHS parents joined with staff to develop the following ideas about how families can support students' success in reading and math:

- Ensure regular attendance and being on time for school.
- Create a place where my child can study and do homework
- Participate, as appropriate, in decisions relating to my child's education.
- Check my child's planner (communication log) daily for homework and communication from the teachers
- Be informed about my child's education and communicate with the school and respond as appropriate.
- Initiate contact with my child's teacher when I have questions or concerns.

Together, Everyone Achieves MORE!

What is a School-Parent Compact?

A School-Parent Compact for Achievement is an agreement that parents, students, and teachers develop together. It explains how parents and teachers will work together to make sure all our students reach grade-level standards.

Jointly Developed

Parents, students, and staff of Treutlen Middle-High School work together to develop our School-Parent Compact for Achievement. Teachers provide input on home learning strategies parents can use to extend academic experiences in the home. Parents add meaningful and more specific ideas and recommendations. Students make suggestions on what would help them learn. Meetings are held each year to review the compact and make revisions based on student needs. Parents are welcome to contribute comments and suggestions at any time!

Together, Everyone Achieves MORE!
